1887.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

SECRETARY'S DEPARTMENT,
BOSTON, December 10, 1886.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives:

The Twenty-sixth Annual Abstract of Polls, Property, Taxes, etc., as assessed May 1, 1886, is herewith submitted, in accordance with the provisions of section 57, chapter 11, Public Statutes.

In addition to the items called for by law, all the information returned to this department by the assessors appears in this abstract.

The Table of Aggregates calls for "Polls, Property, Taxes, etc., as ASSESSED." Heretofore, in some instances, exempted property, etc., has been returned, but there is every reason to believe that the figures in this abstract show the property, etc., assessed. The apparent decrease in certain cases is thus accounted for.

If for any purpose it is necessary to know annually the total number of polls, of horses, cows, etc., or the total value of property, etc., then the law should be amended so as to require the assessors to make a return of exempted as well as of assessed property, etc.

Suggestions are made from time to time by assessors as to changes in the form of the Valuation Book. Having a practical knowledge of what is necessary to carry out the provisions of law relating to the book, it would seem advisable to give the assessors an opportunity to present such amendments to the law as are necessary, in their judgment, to a better performance of the work.

Some of the Duplicate Valuation Books returned to this department are not copies, as required by law,—books other than those furnished by the Commonwealth having been used as originals. If there is no good reason why cities and towns should be required to use the books furnished by the Commonwealth, the law should be amended so as to make such use optional.

The form of the Table of Aggregates should be made more convenient without reducing the number of items.

The results of a comparison of the returns of 1886 with those of 1885 are shown in the statement on page 5 and in the statements in tabular form on pages 8 and 9.

Very respectfully,

HENRY B. PEIRCE,

Secretary.

SECRETARY'S DEPARTMENT,
BOSTON, Dec. 18, 1889.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives.

The Twenty-ninth Annual Abstract of Polls, Property, Taxes, etc., as assessed May 1, 1889, is herewith submitted, in accordance with the provisions of section 57, chapter 11, Public Statutes.

The columns headed Money at Interest, etc., Money on Hand, etc., Public Stocks, etc., Stocks in Corporations, etc., are practically useless, as only estimates appear in any case, while in many instances, where personal property in very large amounts is returned by the assessors, no figures are given under either of these headings.

In order to ascertain the exact number of persons assessed on property, the number of resident owners and the number of non-resident owners should be returned in separate columns.

The results of a comparison of the returns of 1889 with those of 1888 are shown in the comparative statement and in the statements in tabular form on pages 5 to 11 inclusive.

The "Totals" for twenty-nine years, 1861-1889, are printed on pages 60 to 63 inclusive.

Very respectfully,

HENRY B. PEIRCE,

Secretary of the Commonwealth.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,
BOSTON, December 18, 1893.

To the Honorable Senate and the House of Representatives.

The Thirty-third Annual Abstract of Polls, Property, Taxes, etc., as assessed May 1, 1893, is herewith submitted, in accordance with the provisions of section 57, chapter 11, Public Statutes.

The results of a comparison of the returns of 1893 with those of 1892 are shown in the "Comparative Statement," on pages 4, 5 and 6, and in the "Increase or Decrease," etc., in tabular form on pages 8 to 11 inclusive.

The "Aggregates," etc., "during thirty-three years, 1861-1893," are printed on pages 60 to 63 inclusive. The reprinting of this table in every report is of doubtful expediency; but owing to the discovery of a considerable number of errors which have been repeated year after year it is deemed proper to correct the table with all possible care and present it in full once more. It may be advisable hereafter to confine this recapitulation to ten year periods, corresponding to the state census decades.

Very respectfully,

WILLIAM M. OLIN,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
